Complete & Operational

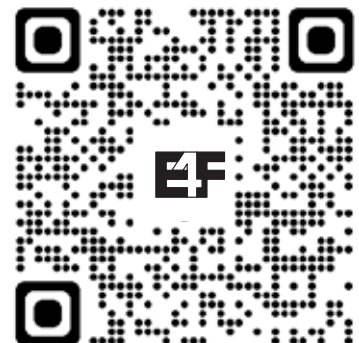

The studio is complete and operational! We have begun to record new content, but not at the pace we had planned. I have several speaking events that require preparation so for now, the recording has taken a back seat. I spent a week at Forest Springs Camp & Conference Center teaching the TrailHead students (a gap year work-study program). What a terrific group of young men and women. They have a real hunger to learn. I was teaching them about the correlation between the burnt offerings of the Old Testament with the command to love God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind in the New Testament. One of the girls was so flabbergasted by this new knowledge, she shrieked out right in the middle of the lesson. I am looking forward to returning in October for another week of classes. I also had the opportunity to return to Fort Wilderness for Margo Fiesler's women's retreat. I taught two sessions on The Creator God providing evidence for a creator as well as literal 24-hour days of creation. The women absolutely loved it and wanted more. They have already invited me back for next year.

We have introduced a new video series called Creation Clues. Through these shorter videos, you will learn about God through creation. The first one is on lichens and is getting lots of "likes" and positive comments. The second one is called Logic & Design in Nature. A retired schoolteacher has watched both of them and thought they were very "enjoyable". The Ipuwer video continues to be the most viewed with over 30K views in one week. We have also been averaging about a dozen new subscribers daily.

Perks of Living in Kewaskum

For those of you who may not have heard the main reason we chose to relocate to Kewaskum, it's FAMILY! Heather & Tom with their 6 kids are 30 minutes away, Amanda & Jason with their 2 are about 20 minutes from us, and Michaela & Ethan with their 2 new foster daughters live only 10 minutes away. (They had these sisters, ages 5&6, placed with them at the end of August. It has been challenging from time to time.) We have been blessed to share several family dinners already and Denise has had many opportunities to babysit and provide support. Michaela posted one of her perks – "I can randomly swing by my parents' house to vent about my children's behavior and my mom gives me chocolate cake for breakfast. So thankful to have them here to support us through this! God's timing is perfect." :) We have also been blessed by the church family we have chosen to worship with.

Keep Us in Your Prayers

Please continue to pray for us as we bring the Truth to this broken world:

- We have had two new additions to our team of monthly donors and another very generous one-time gift!
- Praise God for the timing of our move and all the special family times we have already shared!
- Thank you, Lord, for expanding our ministry!
- Pray for new opportunities. Maybe you know someone who would be interested in booking an event.
- Pray for more funding to help us reach our monthly goal of $12,500 to cover salaries and operating expenses! We currently are at 65%. Please consider partnering with us.
