

On to New Series!

A lot is going on here at Evidence 4 Faith!

We just wrapped up two series, “Unpacking Darwinian Evolution – Vestigial Organs” and “David and the Giants”, and now we are moving on to more new and exciting topics that we hope you will check out! In fact, we have so much in production, we are planning on launching two releases each week going forward!

As of last week, we just launched a new video series titled “Artifact Facts” where I will bring artifacts into the studio and reveal how they confirm and illuminate the Bible. Starting soon, we will be also launching a podcast series on “The Gospel of John” where I will be doing an in-depth study of the book. And, also coming soon, we will be releasing short devotionals as podcasts that are titled “Devos by the Sea”. This series will be taking some old devotions I had written many years ago for our Marine Biology Trip, but I also I will be writing some new ones that will consist of biblical lessons and reflections inspired from God’s wonderful creation, the oceans. My daughter, and E4F Communications Manager, Michaela, has also written some devotions and will be joining me on some of the podcasts in this series.

Michael speaking at Silver Birch Ranch, explaining how cells shout the existence of God.

*Although teaching from our studio is a wonderful blessing, I am very blessed to have been able to be the guest speaker at Silver Birch Ranch for one of their family camps. I had the opportunity to present 5 times to about 200 people. The theme for my topic was that cells shout the existence of God. I conducted a handful of experiments on stage such as extracting DNA, learning about the miracle of blood clotting, and how cells form and that their formation discredits the theory of Darwinian evolution. We received some great feedback!

Consider joining us in May 2026 as we will be travelling with Emmaus Tours once again to Israel! Experience the Bible like never before and see it come to life before your very eyes! Our Archaeology Trip to Israel is unlike most others as ours is centered on the history of the ancient biblical culture as we explore the ancient ruins. Those who have gone with us in the past have expressed that after attending our trip, they no longer read the Bible the way they used to. This trip will likely impact your walk with Christ in an extraordinary way!

We are still working on getting the details finalized and registration open, but if you want to make sure you are notified immediately as the information is released, then go to our website and subscribe to the Israel Trip email list! You can also find the exact dates and price listed on our website as well!
