

Bring E4F to a Location Near You!

A breakdown of steps to book an event with Evidence 4 Faith.

Step 1. Contact E4F

- Get in touch with E4F to check availability and set a date
- Email at info@evidence4faith.org
- Call Michaela Vorwerk, Communications Manager, at (262)343-6704

Step 2: Pick a topic

- Michael can teach on a variety of topics and themes that fit and/or combine our 4 pillars (History, Science, The Bible, Truth).
- Michael has written a large library of lessons that can be adapted for short and long formats (one-time sessions to multi-day workshops).
- Any lesson published in our online courses can be adapted for a live audience.
- Make sure your topic is geared to your audience.

Step 3: Find a Location to Host

- A lot of churches are willing to host events, so contact your/ a church.
- Some schools, especially Christian schools, may be willing to host.
- Look into local community centers or town halls.
- Some of these locations may require a rental fee. If so, you, or those attending are required to cover that fee. Consider charging an attendance fee to cover expenses if you are unable to cover it fully.

Step 4: Advertise

- We will post your event on our website
- Make flyers (contact E4F at info@evidence4faith.org if you want assistance in designing a flyer). Hang your flyers in your church, school, coffee shops, local businesses, on social media, etc.
- Broadcast on social media
